Equities Market

Equities market performance remain quite low despite several counters trading at huge discounts on impact from the elevated interest rates, a weak local currency that has seen reduced appetite for the local stocks especially from a foreign perspective. Higher returns on investment in the government treasuries continue shifting funds to the sector with the situation expected to remain in the first half of 2024.

The week saw all market indices gain marginally at an average of 0.6% week on week (w-w) supported by mid cap counters which were 0.6% w-w up. The N10 index that tracks the top 10 most liquid counters was 0.4% w-w up as the NSE 20 also went up 0.5%.

Volumes exchanged rose 1.9% to 39.25Mn shares with a 9.6% w-w reduction in value traded from KES 682.39Mn to KES 616.92Mn. Market capitalization improved 0.6% to KES 1,458.75Bn from KES 1,449.84Bn the week before.

Foreign participation improved from 61.2% the second week to 64.0% the third week of 2024 with a 94.1% dip in net foreign outflows from KES 99.17Mn to KES 5.88Mn.

The telecommunication sector was the most active transacting 48.2% of the week's market value followed by the Banking and manufacturing sector at 40.7% and 6.5% respectively. These three sectors constituted 95.5% of the week's total value traded and 89.9% of the market transactions.

Safaricom (KES 13.95, +0.4% w-w) was the week's top mover having exchanged 21.31mN shares valued at KES 297.30Mn. The telco's foreign activity drops from 89.5% the week before to 73.0% of foreign inflows of KES 8.14Mn. See above its foreign buys and sales values.

Heavy foreign outflows were witnesses in Equity Group (KES 36.50, +2.0% w-w) resulting for a net foreign outflow of KES 14.59Mn which was however offset by a foreign inflow in KCB Group (KES 21.70, -1.5% w-w) of KES 14.18Mn.

We remain confident of a better return on investment in the banking sector and retain our buy recommendations on Equity Group, Co-operative bank Group (KES 11.35, +0.9%), KCB Group, and I&M Holdings (KES 17.5, 0.0% w-w) among others, watch out for our stock pick recommendations.

Bonds Market

Bonds market activity continue improving as on the better pricing the better returns witnessed win the last six months where rates have been on an up-trend.

During the week, a total of KES 17.35Bn was exchanged, a 72.1% spike from that of KES 10.09Bn traded the week before. This was largely after the closure of the primary bond tap-sale auction that had closed the week before.

The IFB1/2023/6.5-year paper remained the most traded paper on its better coupon of 17.9327% that has proved the best since its issue on 13th November 2023. The paper traded KES 7.14Bn, representing 41.1% of the market value.

Yield Curve

The NSE yield curve experienced mixed movements downward in both the short-end and the long-end. The curve along papers of below 5-years shifted upwards on effect from the recent primary auction. Papers across the 9-year had the largest rise in yields.

Generally, we view a persistent upward shift of the yield curve on the tight liquidity, further pricing of the revised Central Bank Rate and the government focus on domestic borrowings.

Treasury Bills

Better returns on investment in the T-Bills market continue making attracting more liquidity to the sector.

Rate on the 91-day papers hit 16.2347% while that on the 364-day paper surpassed returns on the 5-year paper re-opened in January 2024 (FXD1/2023/05 – 16.9844%) at 16.4917% per annum.

It's on this better returns the T-bills market continues to witness oversubscriptions. A total of KES 35.28Bn was subscribed at 96.8% or KES 34.14Bn against a weekly target of KES 24.0Bn. This was supported by T-bill redemptions of KES 33.81Bn due on Monday, January 22, 2024.

In the upcoming auction of week 4, we expect a total undersubscription on low T-Bill maturities of KES 16.17Bn which we anticipate being reinvested back.

Interbank

Tight liquidity and heavy demand for cash by the government continue seeing the interbank rate above the CBK interbank window range of 250bps from the CBR rate. In the week, the interbank rate averaged at 13.67% while closing the week at 13.76% from that of 13.44% of average 13.43% the week before.

Bank excess liquidity enlarged 3.4% from KES 14.6Bn to KES 19.6Bn in the week on what we view as funds conservation towards the tap-sale auction payment of Monday, 22nd January 2024.

We forecast the interbank rate to remain above the interbank range within a range of 13.5% and 14.0%.

Currency

The Kenyan shilling further lost 0.3% w-w against the US dollar from KES 159.85 to KES 160.35 per dollar, a slightly lower depreciation in comparison to losses of 1.2% the week before and 0.9% in the first week of 2024.

Depreciation of the shilling continues resulting to imported inflation especially on products of imported raw materials and oil in general.

The Kenyan government announced of a plan to exit from the Government to Government (G2G) oil deal and allow market forces to take effect following failure of the program in addressing forex exchange volatility according to the international Monetary Fund (IMF) report released in the week. The first contract agreement was to run for 9-months, from April-2023 to January 2024 and then to be renewed.

Forex reserves shed 0.2% during the week to USD 6,814Mn, enough for 3.6-months of import cover against the requirement of 4.0-months of import cover. The reserves are however set to improve upon receipt of the approved IMF facilities set to check in any time in the month.
